Volume 10

Time passed, and I have changed, along with my friends and school. I can look back at years before, when Admiral King High School was young and so was I. We've grown together, we've had our ups and downs, and we've tried to improve. The following pages are an account of those accomplishments and events . . .

The past ten years have been a decade of accomplishments, growth, and improvement. We started with a new school, a new class and new ideas and built on that foundation.

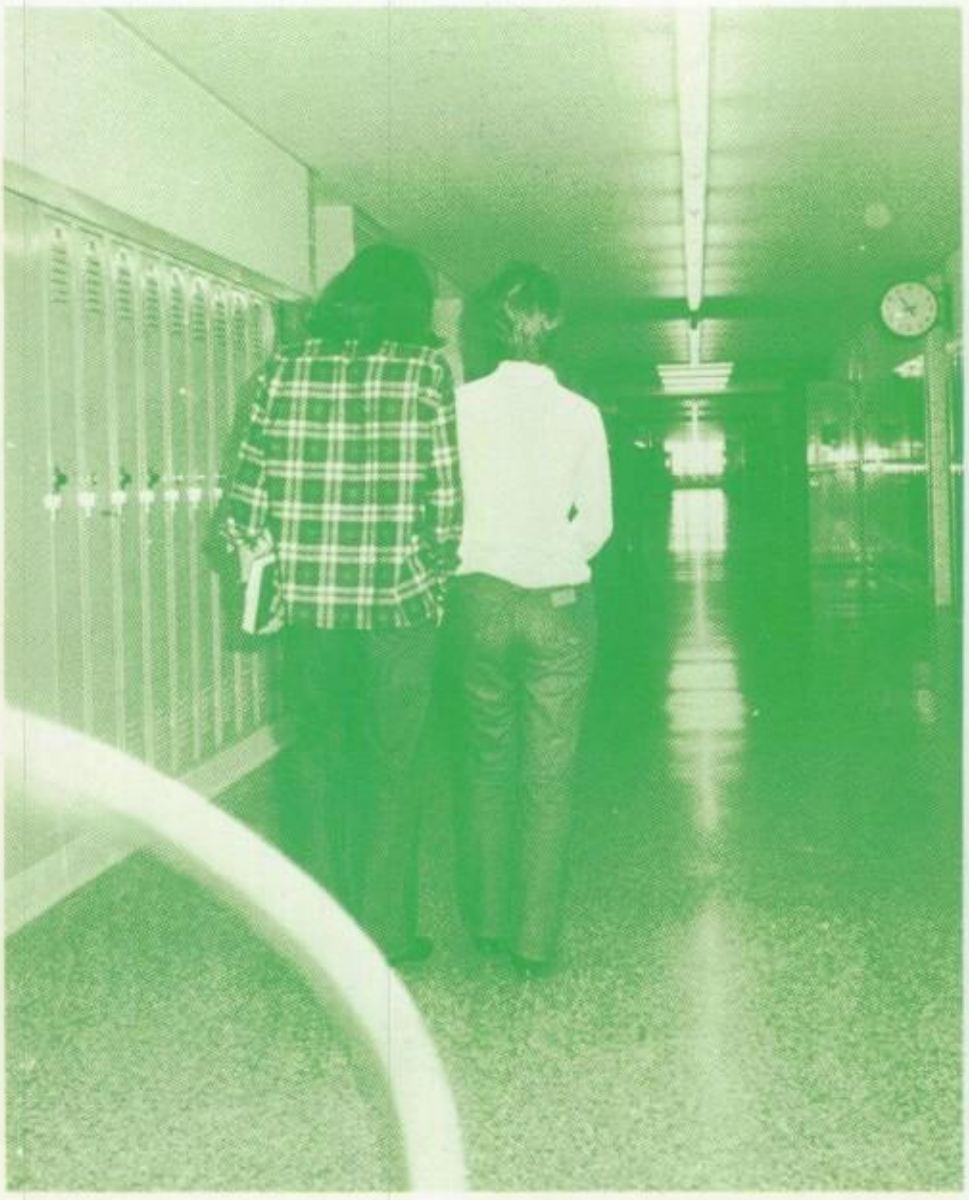
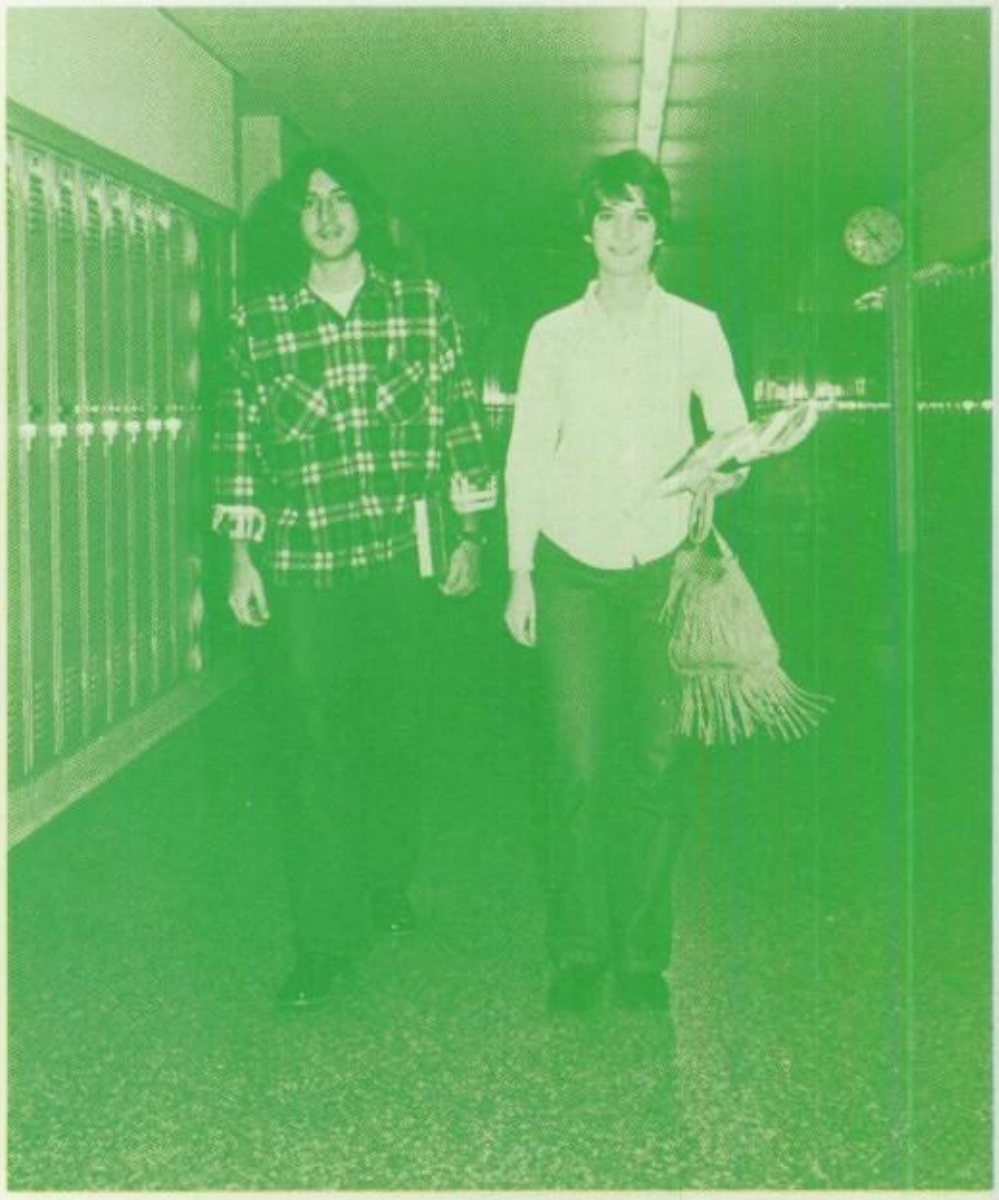
Rah!

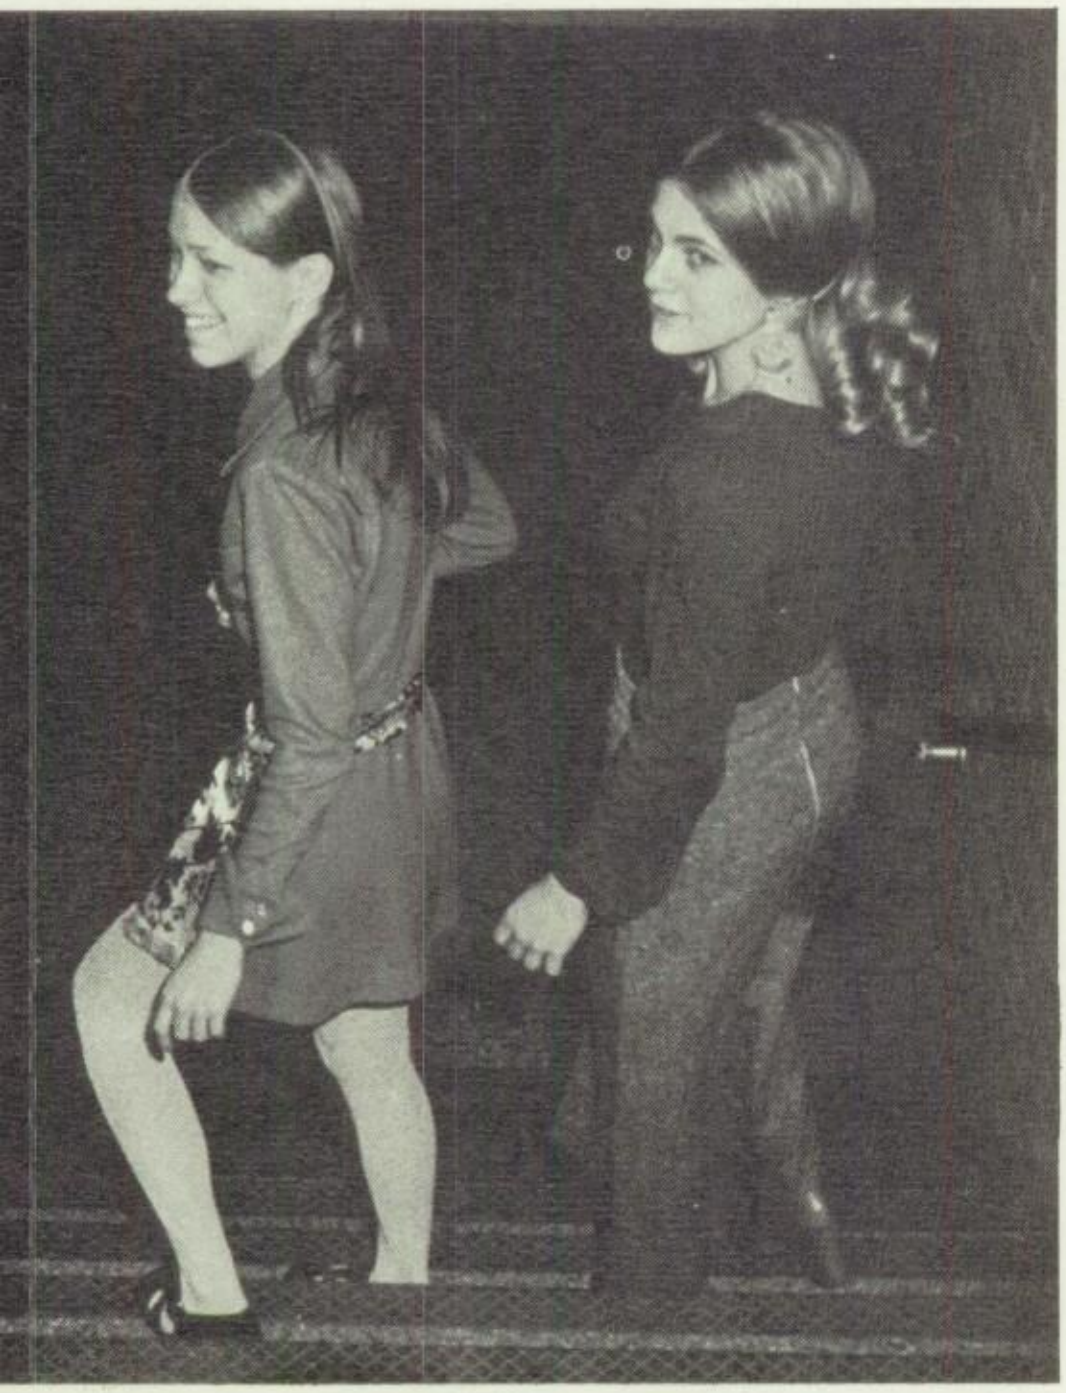
In the past decade, we have built traditions around Admiral King High School.

Our annual homecoming game is presided over by our queen and her court while our football team is fighting for a victory . . .

. . . urged on by Harvey, our loyal mascot.

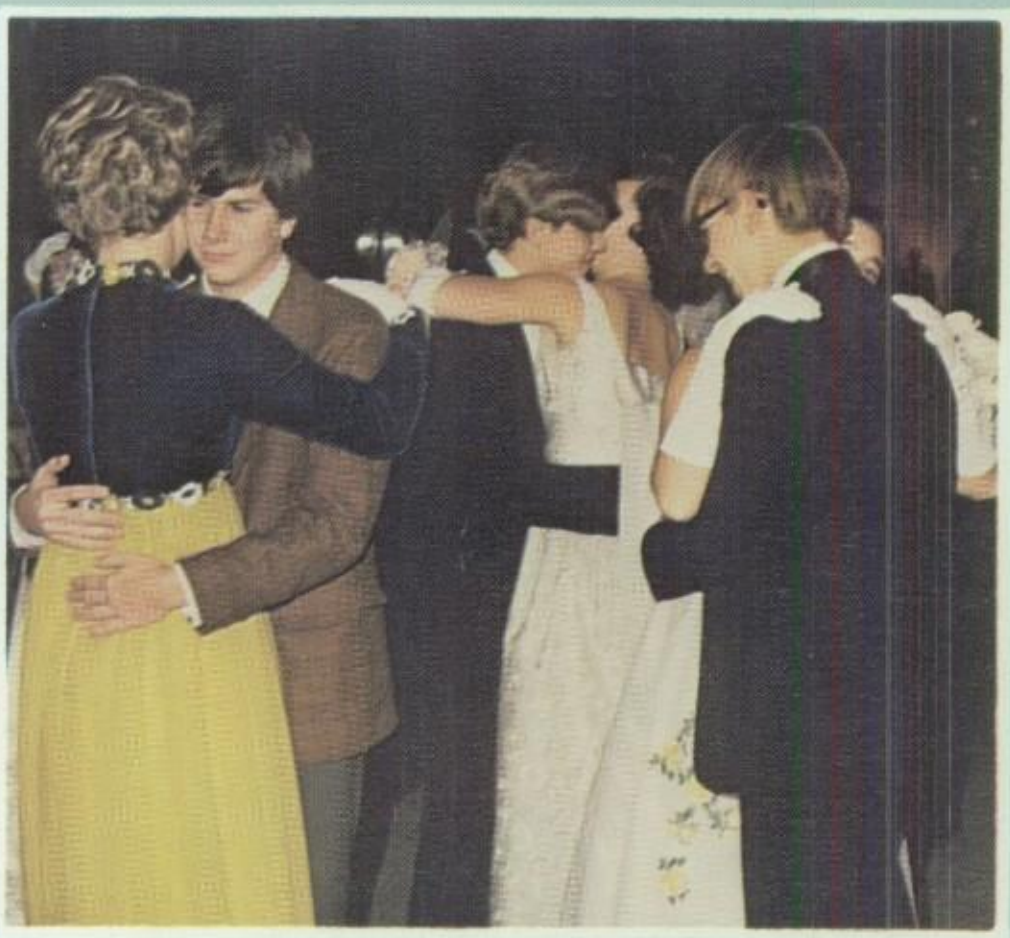




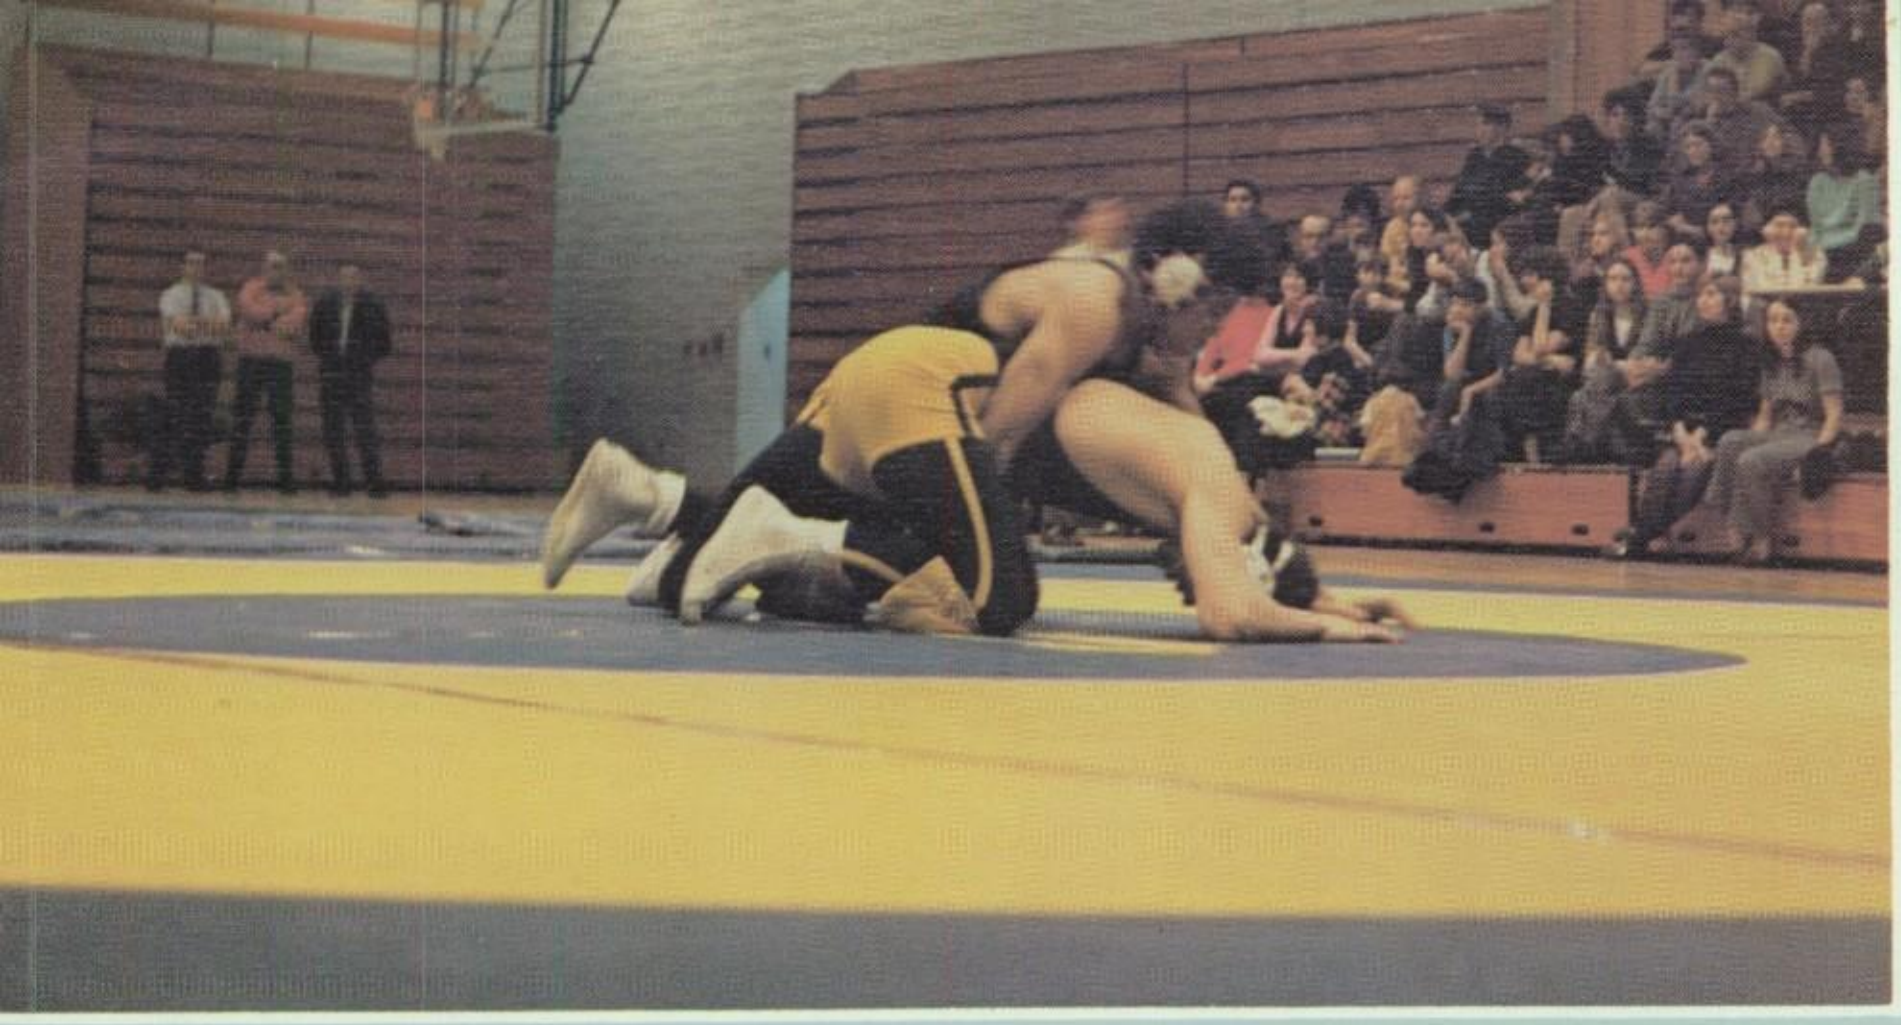


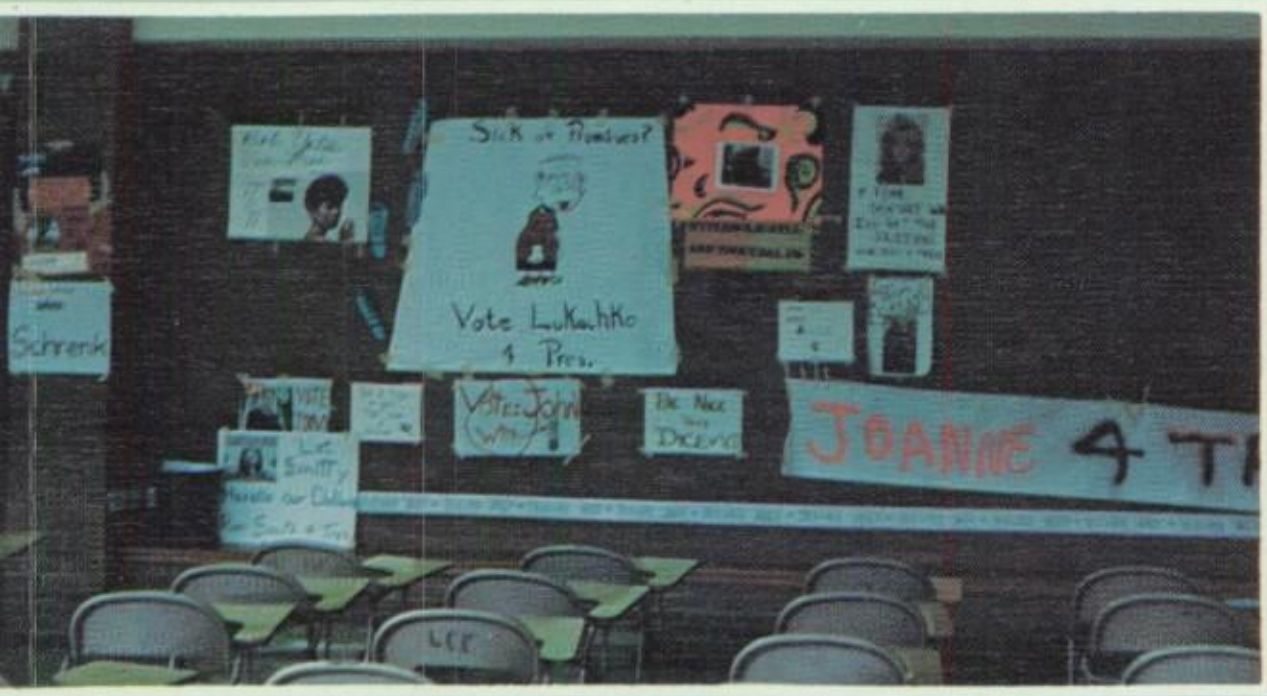
Long skirts and short skirts . . . blue jeans and long hair . . . girls wearing pants . . . all common sights . . . part of the new dress code. Expanding extra-curricular activities to snow-plowing, tow ropes and ski slopes . . . the Ski Club.

Gowns and suits and nosegays . . . time to relax and enjoy each other's company or to talk with friends. The laughter turns to . . .

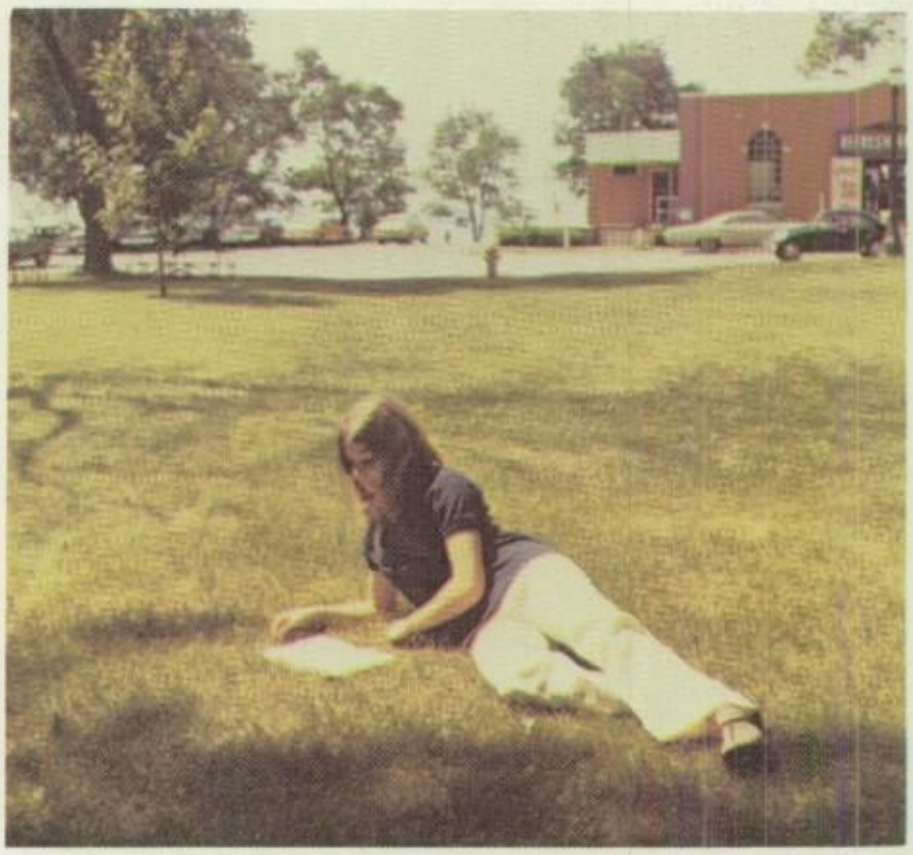


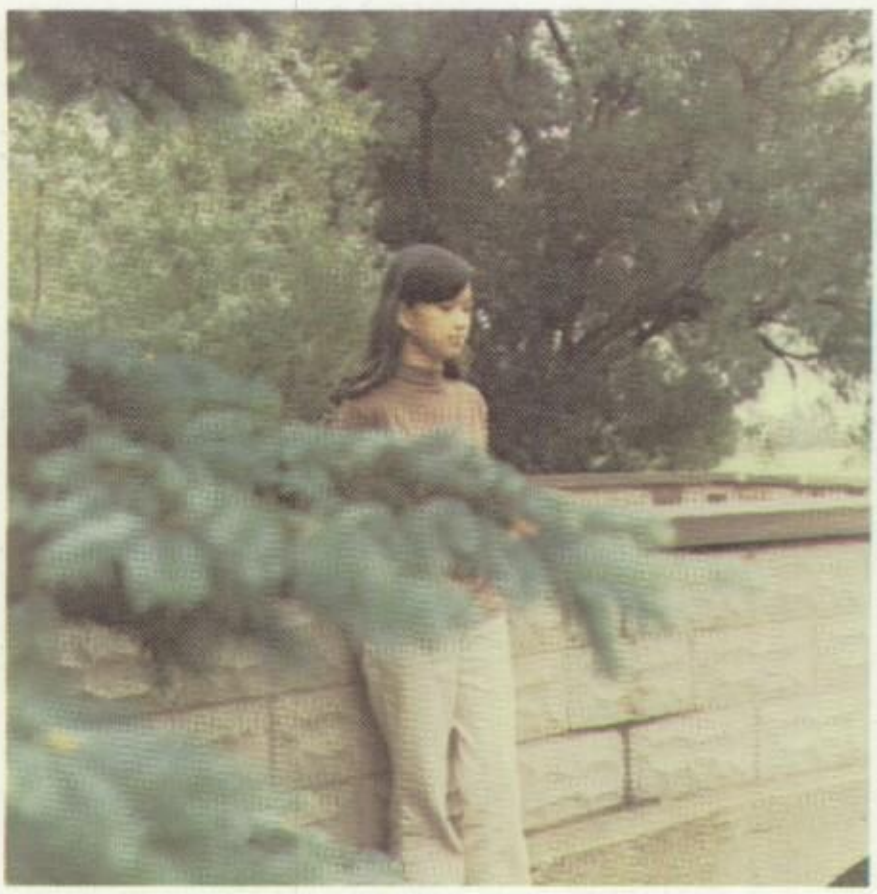
the hum of a lead singer . . . a broad shoulder or a soft one to rest one's head on.

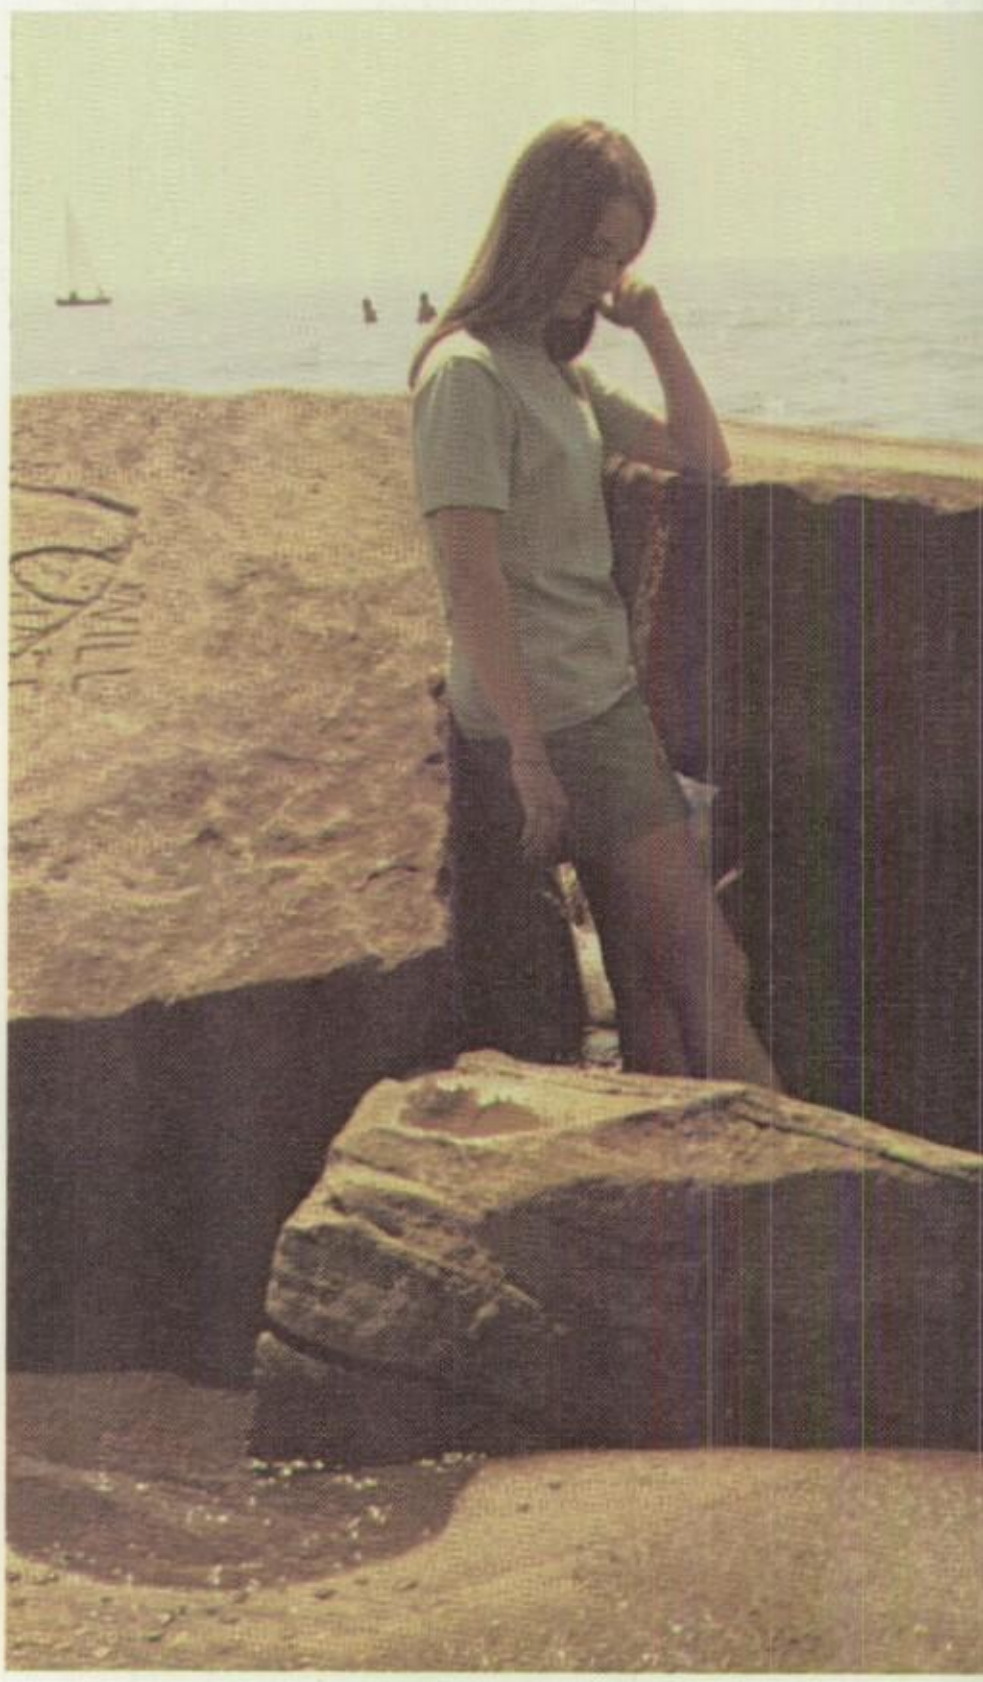


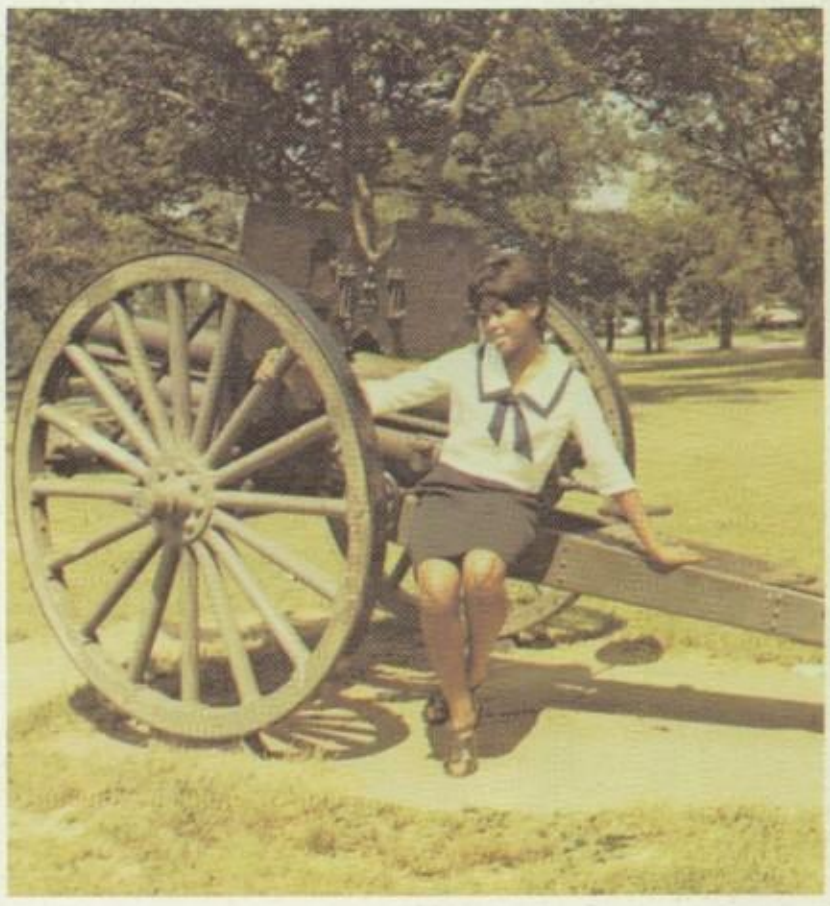


Working towards a pin or a senior class office . . . serving in the NHS or completing a library assignment . . . all are a part of school life.









" . . . the rosebud garden of girls."

In Memorium
To Maureen

Friendliness, an important quality in every girl's life, especially if she loves helping others, made Maureen a special kind of person. Maureen, Reney, as her friends called her, was born on July 5, 1953. She was a member of the American Field Service and the Torch Club, which extended help to the needy. She enjoyed singing and being a member of the Christ of Redeemer Church Choir for ten years. Her warm smile and quiet personality were displayed to her fellow students and teachers. She will always be remembered as a cheerful conversationalist in homeroom, and as a friend to all who knew her.

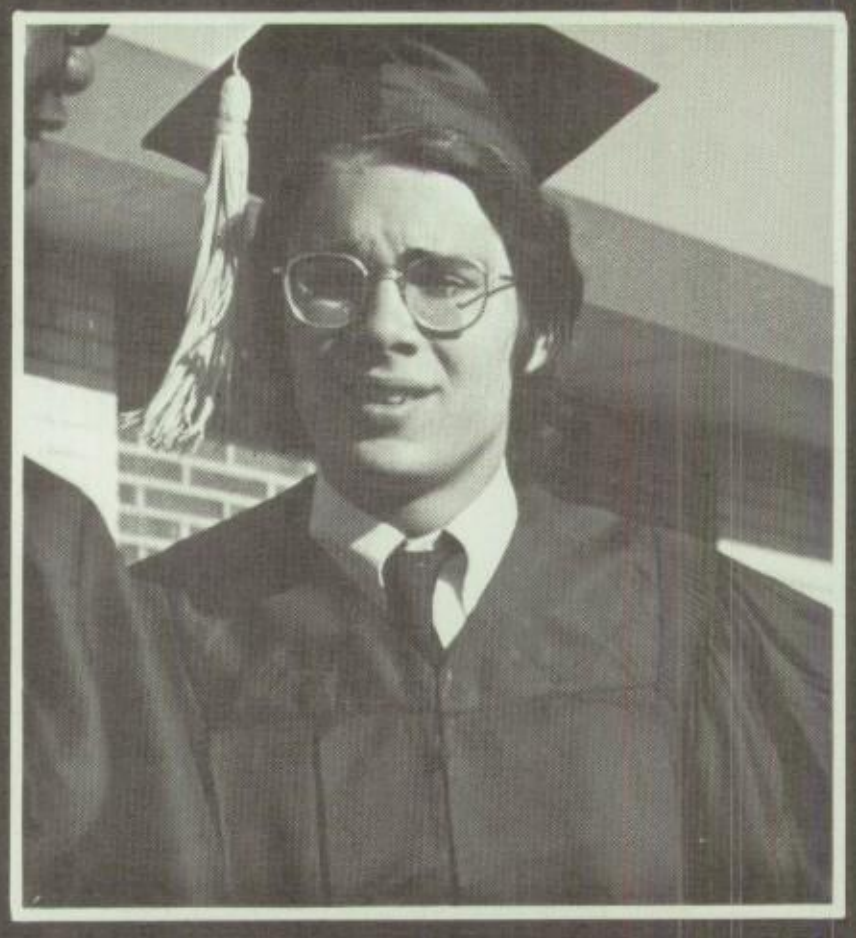
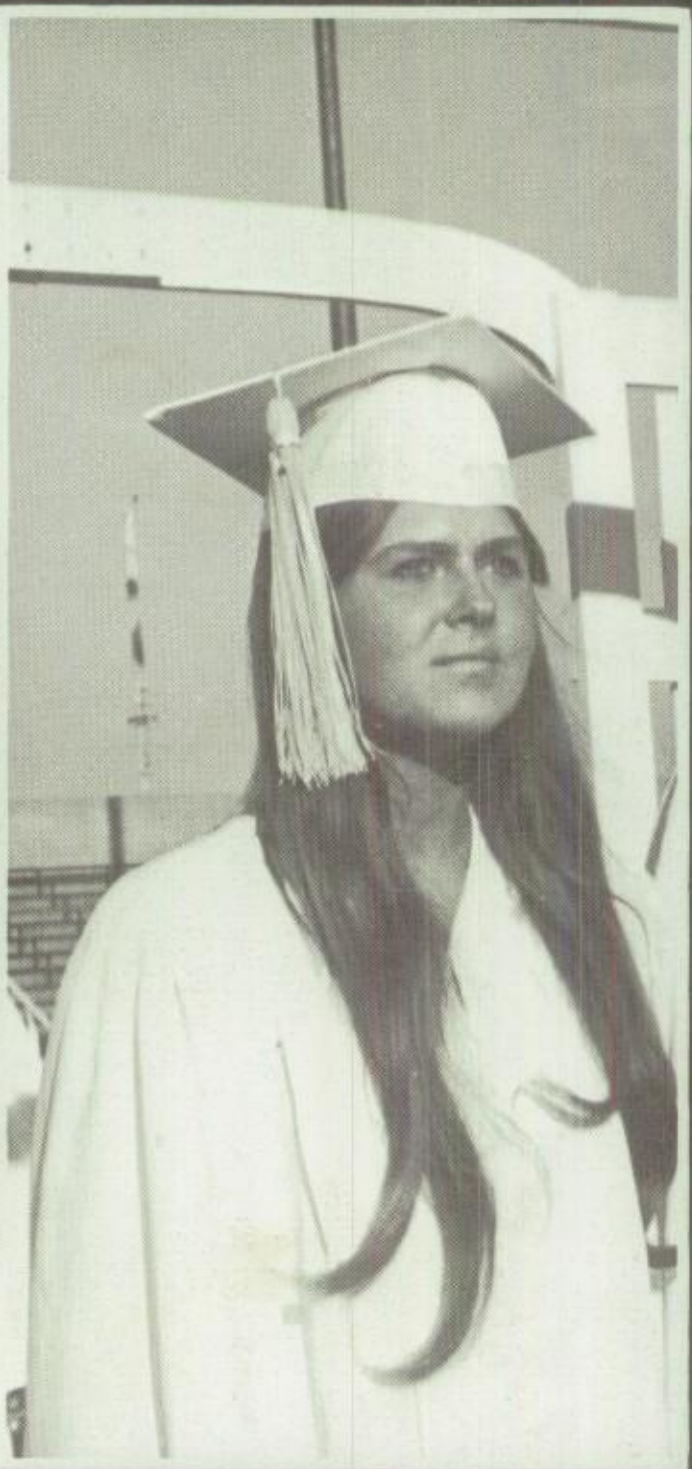
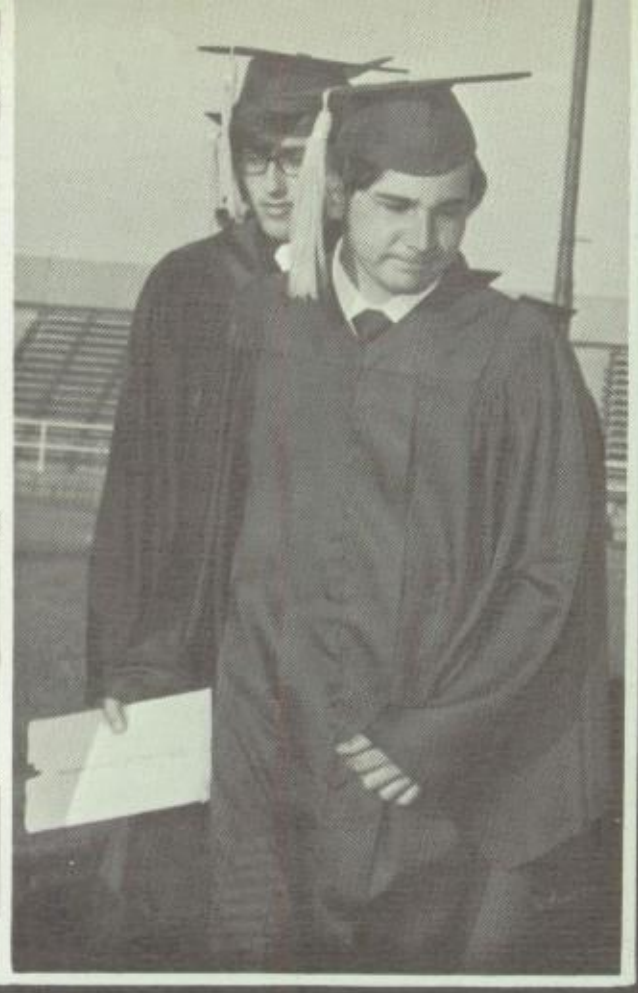
Preparation And Anticipation . . .





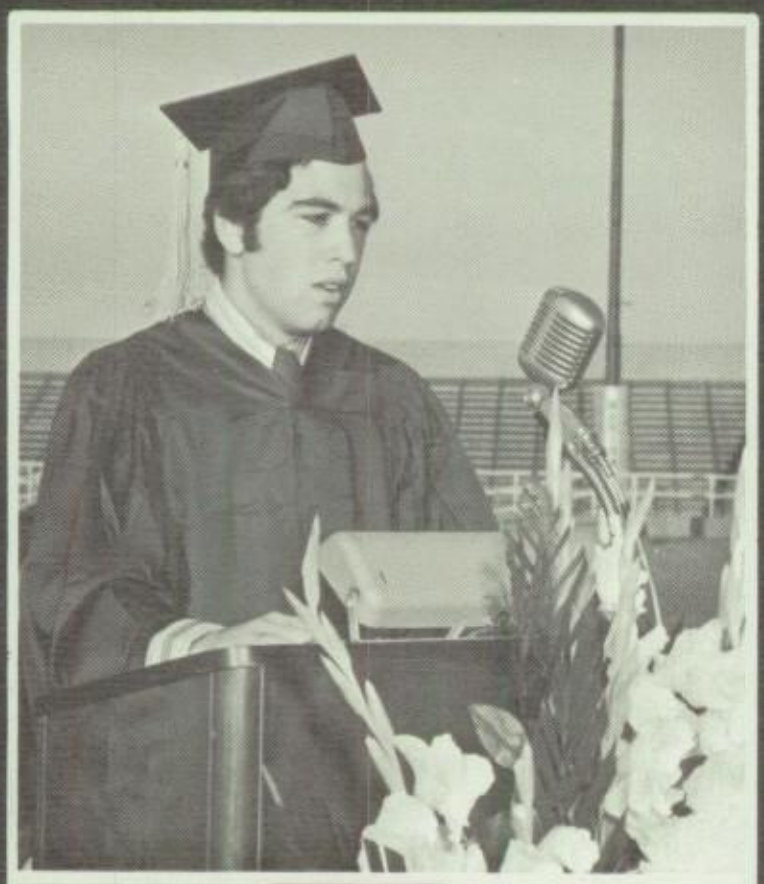
A pensive . . .

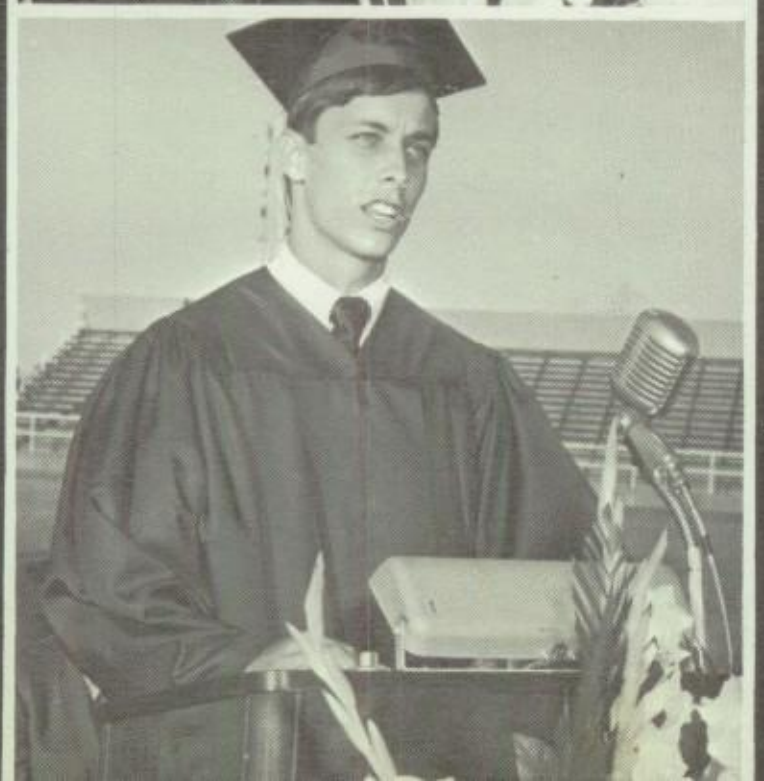
a grinning . . .



a determined graduate.

Participation And Inspiration . . .

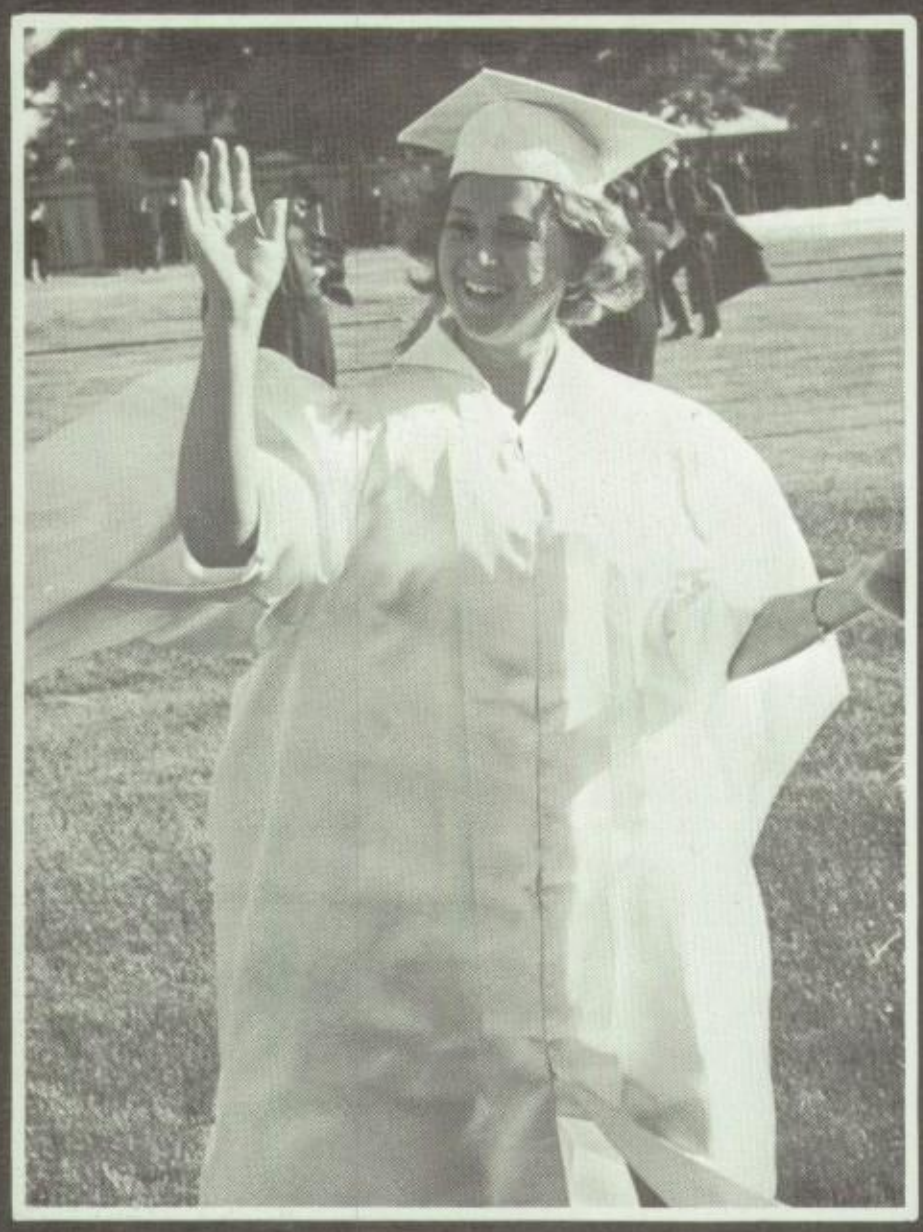


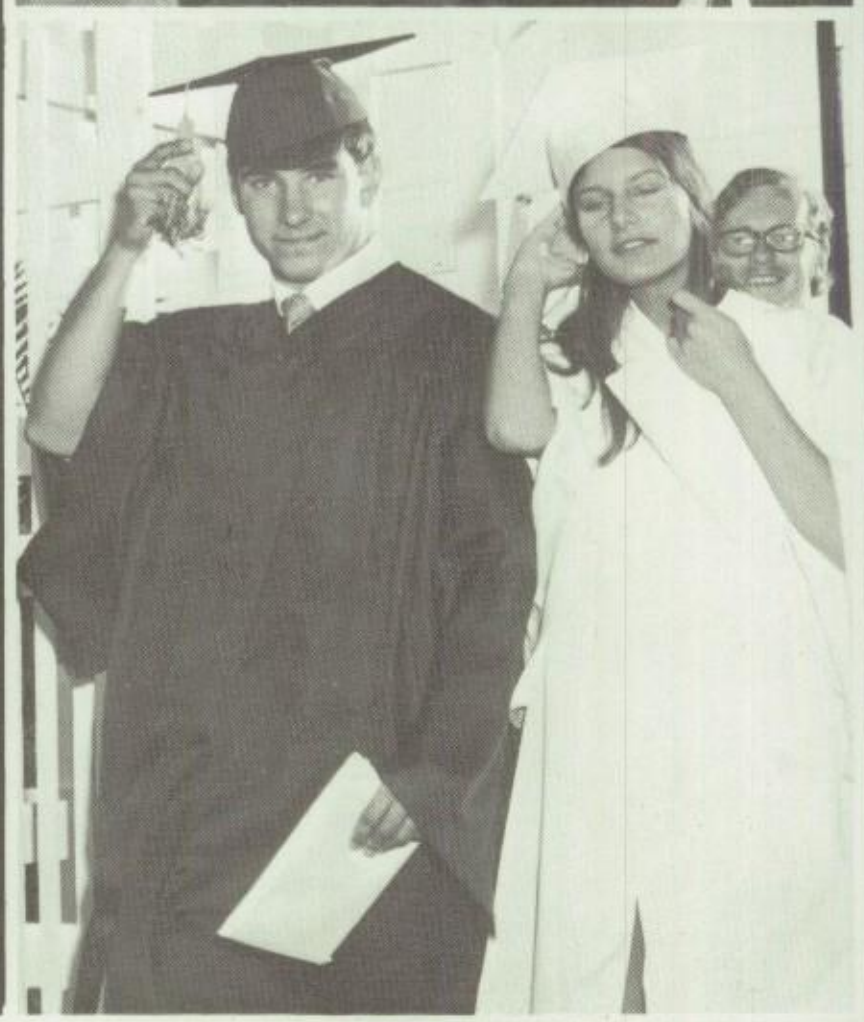


On June 9, a sunny, wind-blown day, 426 students of Admiral King High School regimentally paraded across George Daniel Field in flowing white or navy blue robes to the sound of "Pomp and Circumstance". The music stopped, and the commencement ceremonies, marking four years of hard work, fun, and hard-earned accomplishments, began.

Highlighting the program were Paul Gilman and Jerry Zemanek. Paul and Jerry addressed the students and guests with speeches entitled "A New Direction" and "A High School Education — Of What Value?" Together they enlightened and inspired the crowd with views on educational priorities and the possibilities the future holds for 1971 graduates.

With the end of these speeches, Michael Lukachko, the class president, presented the graduates.





Exhilaration!!
Congratulations

Since 1961, he served as business manager for the publications. Here, he devoted much time to serving the publi cations and to training his staff for the immediate needs of the publications and for their future needs in the busi ness world.

Dedication, friendship, instruction —
all these qualities were abundant in Mr

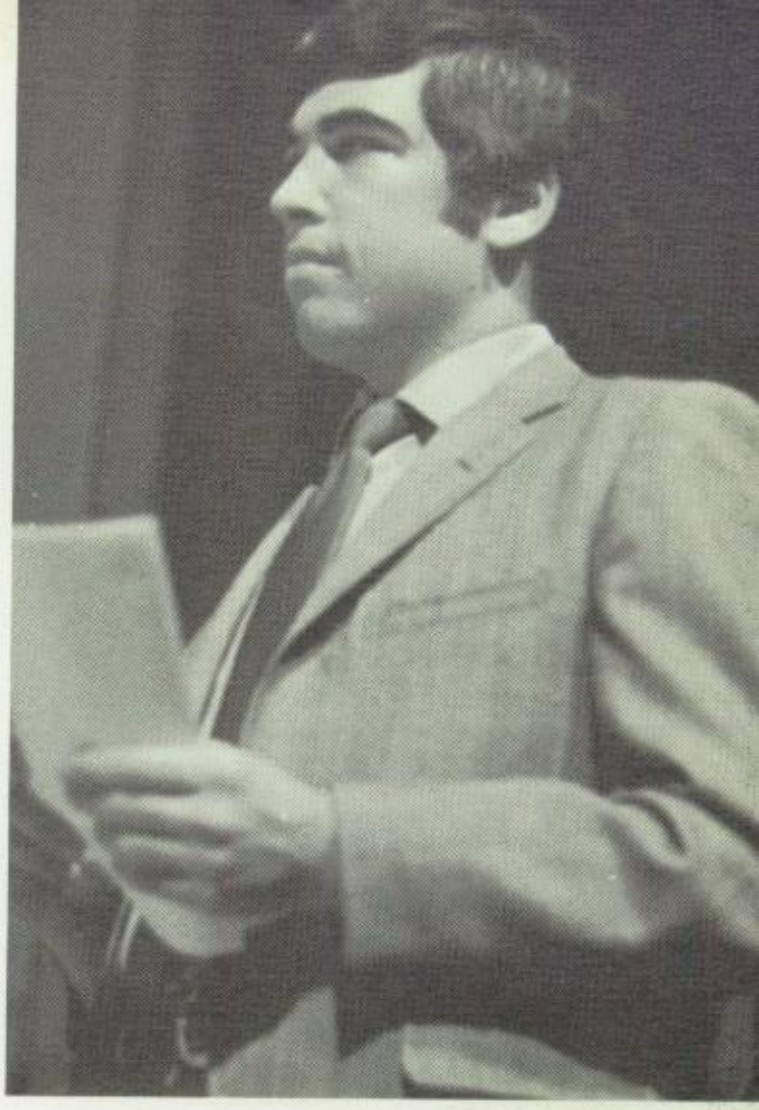
Heaven Can Wait

Joe Pendleton, a prize fighter, is accidentally taken to Heaven. As he starts to return to earth, he finds that his body has been cremated, and he has no body to return to. Mr. Jordan, a heavenly supervisor, promises to find Joe another body. Joe accepts the body of a scoundrel, Jonathan Farnsworth, only to undo some of the damage done by Farnsworth. Joe is soon told that he must give up Farnsworth's body, and the search for another body begins.

Mr. Jordan receives a flash that K.O. Murdock, the champ, has been mysteriously shot during a championship bout. As Murdock is about to be counted out, Jordan transfers Joe's spirit to the body of Murdock in time for Murdock to remain the champ.

There are still problems to be straightened out when Joe actually becomes Murdock and loses memory of his previous existence and of his girl friend, Bette. Fortunately, they meet and fall in love again, and Mr. Jordan, his task completed, is free to head back to the Hereafter.



Attempting to resolve complications.

. . . you up there, Mr. Jordan , give me a break!

Stopping Joe's fight would not have been a resolution.

Paint Your Wagon

"Paint Your Wagon" brings to us the story of the wandering gold miner in the Old West. Ben Rumson (Natalio Rodriguez) discovers gold and soon finds a community growing up that bears his name. After much hesitation Ben is finally convinced to send the only woman in Rumson, his daughter Jennifer (Jan Murawski), east to school. However, he takes this action too late as Jennifer has already fallen in love with a Mexican miner, Julio (David Loboda).

Jacob Woodling (Darrell Minnich), a Morman, arrives in town with his two wives. He is prompted to auction his wife Elizabeth (Laurie Ecker) to the highest bidder who is Ben. Some time later Jennifer runs away from school to find Rumson a poor, busted town. Even Julio has left to look for a lake of gold. Julio returns to Jennifer. Ben begins to dream, finally preparing to once again roam after his wand'rin' star.

King's First Foreign Exchange Student

Gustavo E. Arriagada of Santiago, Chile, attended Admiral King High School under the Open Door Student Exchange Program which allows students to spend ten weeks in a foreign country during their own summer vacations. Arriagada lived with Dr. and Mrs. Irving Gilman and their four sons at 756 Red Hill Drive, Lorain, from January 16th until his return to Chile on March 23rd.

Arriagada's father teaches chemistry and biology at the University of Chile in Santiago. His mother does some seamstress work. The seventeen-year-old Chilean has an older sister and brother and a younger brother.

English is a required subject in Chile, and Arriagada has had five years' study. He also has had twelve years of German, a requisite of the German school he attends, in addition to his native Spanish. After another year of high school in Chile, Arriagada hopes to pass the tests to enter the university where he will study to become an economist.

Alma Mater

Hail to our colors, gold and blue;
Hail to our Alma Mater true;
Throughout the years we shall stand by
with pride we'll keep your standards high.
The values we established here
will make our mem'ries ever dear.

Oh, Admiral King, so strong and bold,
our endless love can ne'er be told.
The light that you created here
will be a beacon through each year
and bring us always home to sing
the glory of our Admiral King.

Tune: "Navy Hymn" Lyrics: Marjean Ross
